USE CASE DIAGRAM • SYSTEM OVERVIEW

Connect Through Signs

A two-way ASL translation system connecting Signing and Non-Signing users through real-time sign, text, and speech translation.

- ASL User
- Non-Signing User

Prepared as a system design overview

Connect Through Signs
Revised Use Case Diagram
Launch Application
Allow Camera Access
Select Output Mode (Text / Speech)
Start / Stop Translation
Capture Sign
Recognize Sign
Translate to Text
Generate Speech
View Text Output
Switch Input Mode
Enter Text
Capture Speech
Convert Speech to Text
Translate to Sign
Display Sign Animation
Replay Animation
Handle Errors
View Conversation History
Manage Settings
ASL User
(Signing User)
Non-Signing User
(Hearing User)
<<include>> <<extend>> watches translated sign animation reads translated text output shared by both actors
Session setup
Sign → text
Text/speech → sign
Shared utility
Error handling
include / extend association

Question And Discussion

Thank You

A two-way ASL translation system connecting Signing and Non-Signing users through real-time sign, text, and speech translation.

- Dua Naveed
- Bs Computer Science

Prepared as a system design overview